

How to Use: PsycINFO & PsycARTICLES

– Alfred C. O’Connell Library –

PsycINFO is an electronic database of professional psychology and psychiatry-related journal articles and article citations from 1887 to the present. If you only want to search for full-text articles, choose the PsycARTICLES database, and follow the same steps.

To begin:

- 1) Go to the library web page: <http://www.genesee.edu/Library>
- 2) Click on Databases A-Z
- 3) Click on PsycINFO

Enter your search term(s).

Search any field, or choose a specific field like subject or title.

Click the green plus sign if you want to search more than 2 fields.

Click here for peer-reviewed (scholarly) journal articles.

To find empirical articles, limit to Methodology, and then select Empirical Study in the choices that appear to the right.

At this point you will see a list of article citations. (A "citation" is all the information you need to identify and locate an article: article title, author(s), journal title, date, volume, issue and page numbers.)

Some articles do not have full-text available. If the View Article link is not available, click on the SFX button to see if the article is available in another database. If it can't be found, ask a librarian how to get it through Interlibrary Loan.
